

Charles Darwin School

CDS School Council Volunteering summary

Lewis

Pro Dogs Direct: We foster dogs that are either strays or abandoned and keep them until they find a new home.

Scarlett

Coney Hall Rainbows: Once a week in the evening for 2 hours, helping 5-7 year olds with a variety of activities and help them communicate and interact with other young people their age.

Fay

Science department and local stables: Once a week during lunch break I help the Science Technicians with the science equipment. I also volunteer at my local stables to children which involves helping children to grow in confidence around horses.

Daisy

Leacroft Kennels: Once a week after school I help out at the kennels by washing up the animal's food and water bowls, and keep everything nice and tidy.

Andrew

Science department: Once a week during lunch break I help the Science Technicians with the lab equipment.

Georgie

School Library: One a week during lunch break I help the Librarian by tidying the shelves, putting books away and helping younger students with their work.

Andrew

Biggin Hill Counsellors – Campaign Events: Subject to Councillors timetables, whenever there is a local campaign I help with canvassing, e.g. door knocking and leaflet dropping. I also attend some committee meetings and help with some paper work and organising.

Erin

Foal Farm: At the weekends, I take care of small animals such as guinea pigs, rabbits, hamsters, rats and gerbils. I clean out their hutches and living spaces, and spend time with them so that they get used to human interaction.

James

Biggin Hill Air Cadets and Locksbottom Cricket Club: I attend Air Cadets twice a week and have been to many parades to represent the Squadron. I have recently helped redecorate a grave with cadets. At the Cricket Club I support younger players by teaching them how to play.

Niamh

Science department: Once a week during lunch break I help the Science Technicians with the lab equipment.

Paulz

Film Studies Club: Lunchtime and after school, helping students by teaching them how to create their own films.

Dylan

Westerham Junior Football: At the weekend, I help to coach football basics to the U5s and U6s and let them have fun whilst learning at the same time.

Max

History department: Once a week I help in a History class with younger students to support their learning.

Abbie

History department and Chartwell House, National Trust: Once a week I help out in a Year 8 History lesson. In Chartwell House, I welcome the public and am available to answer any questions they may have about Chartwell House.