Year 10 Newsletter

Charles Darwin School

Aspire—Endeavour—Achieve

Dear Year 10

I hope you were all able to read the first newsletter which went out last week and have noted some of the advice. This is a difficult time for many people, especially some of your parents who might be anxious or stressed and unsure of the future. Hence the importance of you all stepping up to the mark. It is clear that many of you have done this and the feedback that I have had from many of your teachers has been really positive. I want this communication to be a weekly event, during the school term, so if any of you have anything to include (good films you have seen recently on Netflix? Good news about yourself or other pupils in Year 10.....) please do let me have this so I can include it in this newsletter.

Mr Lamb

What happened before we finished school which needs a mention?

Erin Hartley came second for the whole of the borough of Bromley in the Speak Out Challenge – she was going to get a mention in the assembly – which didn't happen. Well done Erin.

The Year 10 Music BTEC group organised a great concert and many other Year 10 students gave up their time to either participate (well done you) or simply to support by coming along on the evening. It was a wonderful event and great to see so many of you taking part. Well done.

Year 10 Boys made further progress in the Bromley Cup – showing what a strong team they are this year.

Something to make you smile!!!

The past, present and future walked into a bar. It was tense.

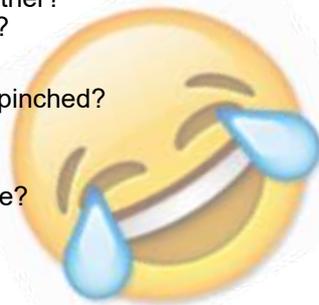

I hate people who use big words just to make themselves look perspicacious.

Q. How do you drown a Hipster?
A. In the mainstream.

Q. What did one DNA strand say to the other?
A. Does my bum look big in these genes?

Q. What did the grape say when he was pinched?
A. Nothing, he gave a little wine.

Q: What do you call a pig that does karate?
A: A pork chop.

The following pupils have had a birthday in the past week and probably have had to make some sacrifices.

So from all of us
HAPPY BIRTHDAY

A message from Mrs Kaye

Keep fit!

There is a workout session on YouTube that you might like to get involved in. Every week day morning Joe Wicks, The Body Coach is streaming live a 30 minute workout over YouTube. He is very popular. If you don't want to do it live, you can catch up later on. There are some staff who are secretly doing this every morning before starting their work day!

MR LAMB'S SHOUT OUT'S

So many of you have approached the work in a sensible and mature fashion. Your teachers feel that the following should deserve a shout out! (we will be doing this in every edition of the Year 10 Newsletter).

Well done to all of you:

Ria Peters: Ms Pitt is impressed at the manner in which you are keeping on top of the Romeo and Juliet work.

Lauren Rufford: Mrs Davies says that you have been amazing at mastering ICT and o365. You have followed instructions impeccably and helped Ms Davies from a student's point of view.

Millie Richardson: Dr. Piercy has been impressed with the positive and resilient manner in which you have approached your Science.

Leon Hickman: You have produced an amazing mind map in your Media Studies recently.

Mantha Radford: Mrs Kelly was delighted with the high standard of your Geography test result.

James Oakes: You have produced some excellent English work for Mrs Mote – there were two particularly good pieces of work handed in.

Andres Salazar & Ellie Johnson: Both of you returned your English work very quickly to Mrs Mote. Well done.

Evie Dyer: You have overcome many obstacles and managed to get your work to Mr Lamb. Showed great resilience!

Finn Barden: For doing a great piece of History for Mr Lamb and earning a virtual house point.

Lakeisha Richards: For completing some excellent Media coursework and a PowerPoint for Mr Archer. He was very pleased!

Andrew Salazar (again), Daisy Green & Lauren Ware: All three of you pleased Ms Sampson at the speed in which you handed in your work. Well done to all of you!

Jemma Watts & Emma Spear: Ms Sampson is also really pleased with the quality of work that you have produced. Well done!

Emma Spear, Connor Dill and Izzy: Ms Garner is really pleased with the work that you have both been doing in your English.

Izzy Franklin: For working particularly well on your speaking and listening exam.

Leon Hickman, Jemma Watts (again) & Demi Stracey: All three of you have completed work of a high standard for Ms Zysemil, going above and beyond what was asked for. You have completed your 12 mark question before the deadline.

Emily Turnham: Ms Edwards is really pleased with you consistently producing high quality work, and demonstrating independency.

Connor Dill (again): Ms Edwards says that you have improved your attitude and positivity towards the tasks set.

Caitlin Joseph, Nyah Tomlinson-Allan, Grace O'Rourke & Lily Steen: All of you have brought a smile to the face of Mr Woods due to the quality of your work.

Keep Up the Good Work!
